Welcome Note

How time flies! It seems that only yesterday we were heralding 2015 and now we are in the second half of the year. The first half of 2015 has been smooth sailing.

GST was implemented in April and I am happy to announce that Grand Margherita Hotel and Riverside Majestic Hotel are GST compliant. There are no hidden charges; no government nor sales and service charge tax in all the two hotels' outlets, except for the GST 6%.

On our local front, we are anticipating a major renovation for Grand Margherita Hotel in the following months.

Rooms in the Sadong Wing will undergo refurbishment. The renovation is expected to be completed sometime in 2016. I hope you will bear with us during the hotel's refurbishment and I assure you that we will do our level best to ensure your stay is as pleasant as ever.

On a more personal note, I am proud to note that both hotels' efforts in environment conservation has paid off. To date both hotels have managed to collect a total of 98,261kg of waste that is made up of mixed paper, old newspaper, black and white paper, carton boxes, mixed plastic bottles, aluminium cans and recycled oil. The Three Rs, "Reduce, Reuse and Recycle" project was mooted in 2010.

The days ahead are much anticipated. These are fun and excitement packed days with feasting and merrymaking top of the list. Expect more fun with this year's Rainforest World Music Festival 2015 that will fall in August 7 to 9 and join the local crowd to cheer their favourite rowing team at the "Sarawak Regatta" on September 27 to 29.

Nearer to the date is the Holy Month of Ramadhan that falls in somewhere in June and ends with the Eid's celebration in July. For the whole month, patrons of Grand Margherita can join the breaking of fast at the city's biggest food fest of 'Original Macam² Ada' and at Riverside Majestic Hotel, the 'Sungkei Ria Ramadhan Buffet'.

We have not forgotten our social responsibilities. Both hotels are committed to helping the Habitat for Humanity in two builds, scheduled in August and September.

Remembering the less-fortunates, the iconic Christmas Gingerbread House is back again after taking a year hiatus. The Lighting Ceremony of the Christmas Gingerbread House will fall on December 2, 2015.

As the year is nearer drawing to a close, there will be a galore of activities in both Grand Margherita Hotel and Riverside Majestic Hotel that will help you to end the year in the most memorable way. Let SCOOP July-December 2015 be your directory of activities and take it from there, the various tantalizing food promotions that will definitely appease any discerning palates.

Finally, I would like to thank you for your continued support and patronage and we at Grand Margherita Hotel and Riverside Majestic Hotel, it is our pleasure to serve you. Merry Christmas and Happy Christmas 2016!

Yours sincerely,

Patrick Lau
Acting General Manager

Mid Autumn Festival

The most important festival for the Chinese community, the Mid-Autumn Festival is not only about moon cakes and lanterns. Behind the lovely façade, there lies an almost sinister story that bears historical significance.

It was during the Yuan Dynasty (1271-1368) when China was ruled by the Mongols. The Chinese planned a revolt through the innocent looking moon cake. They communicated through slipping messages about the uprising into the mooncakes which after that, they gave to friends and relatives and fellow Hans as gifts. That started the revolt.

Since then, on every mid-Autumn, moon cakes are eaten to commemorate the event.

Sarawak Regatta

The Sarawak Regatta is an annual rowing event held on the Sarawak River with decorated longboats. The significance of regattas in Sarawak dates back to 1872 during the era of James Brooke who instituted the use of boat races to put end to the warring between Tribes in Sarawak.

Charles Jenang

He has no formal training. He was raw and unpolished. But that was 29 years ago. Charles Jenang from the MARCOM department is now an accomplished graphic artist who takes designing like fish to water.

Charles started off as a waiter in the Food and Beverage Department and subsequently climbed the corporate ladder to the position of Disco Head waiter when he took a drastic shift to become a graphic artist.

Though he was not trained, Charles was bursting with creativity. It was his mentor, his guiding light and through the years he honed his skill to perfection. One of Grand Margherita Hotel's longest serving staff, Charles has the hotel to thank for realizing his potential.

"I guess you can say I owe the hotel my passion because it offered me an avenue for me to unleash my creativity," admitted Charles. Back at that time graphic artists were an unheard entity.

Charles joined the hotel in 1978 as a waiter. He virtually saw the evolution of the hotel, from the city's first international hotel known as Holiday Inn Kuching till its rebranding to Grand Margherita Hotel in 2009. He had worked under five General Managers, Peter Mueller, Hubert Liner, Khalid Buang, Shaun Langdon and Arthur Yeap.

Kenny Dayub

Loyalty should be his middle name. Kenny Dayub who is the Banquet Operations Manager of Riverside Majestic Hotel has declined numerous offers from competitors to join their organizations but he rejected all and stayed on.

"I believe everywhere is the same and I am very comfortable at where I am," explained Kenny.

Kenny was one of the hotel's pioneer staff. He joined the hotel in 1992, saw its opening and witnessed its subsequent rebranding. He had also worked under four different general managers.

He joined as a Banquet Operations Supervisor and climbed the corporate ladder to where he is right now, a Banquet Operations Manager.

The loyal staff is known for his calm demeanour and composure when confronted with tacky situations. The hotel has trained him well so much that his staff and co colleagues find him a joy to work with.
